St. Peter's College

College Annual 2007-08

DEDICATED TO

MOST REV. DR. ALBERT D' SOUZA
ARCHBISHOP OF AGRA

Editorial

We live in a world of words and we are influenced by what we speak, read and hear, which have a direct bearing on our lives. By means of words the secrets of the heart are brought to light, agony of soul is relieved, hidden grief is carried off, sympathy conveyed, counsel imparted, experience recorded, ecstasy expressed, wisdom perpetuated and relationships bent or broken. That is the power of the word.

Words form the basis of language which is a powerful tool to express our ideas and thoughts. Language should be the part and parcel of the accomplishments one should try to achieve inasmuch as it decides or defines one's personality. We believe that school days are the best in the life of a person to develop this skill.

We have, through this Magazine, tried to provide abundant opportunities for our students to refurbish and enhance their language skills through their contributions in the forms of stories, jokes, features, poems, anecdotes and the like. Some of the write-ups were highly commendable, whereas a few needed vetting, rehashing and in some cases pruning. At the same time we can say with pride that this Annual is a linguistic tour de force of our students.

I would like to thank Rev. Fr. John Ferreira, our Principal and Rev. Fr. Robert, Vice Principal, for their suggestions and guidance from the beginning to the end of the work.

I am beholden to Dr. (Mrs.) Neelam Mehrotra, Mrs. Maureen Miranda, Mrs. Asha Sharma, Dr. (Mrs.) Leena Lazer, Masters Madhur Bansal, Sahil Agarwal and Rohit Luthra for their wholehearted cooperation and help as members of the editorial team.

St. Peter's is my second home- Simon

Agra: The leader of the delegation of teachers from Singapore, Mr. Simon, exchanged his views and shared some personal experiences with IHLA 'net' after attending a short course programme at St. Peter's College, Agra. He is a principal of a school in Singapore. It is a 51-year-old institution established in 1844. From the architecture to the facilities, Simon was impressed by the school.

Mr. Simon felt particularly attached to India because of his own roots. His grandparents had been in India. Simon, being asked about his first impressions about the school, he said with enthusiasm that his very first impression about the school was, "My good friend, Simon, don't do justice to it." He specially liked the savings in the school system of India.

Simon said that teaching is a profession of the world. The one thing that Mr. Simon told was that he will miss the friendly exchanges and hospitality of students and teachers in Agra.

"You are the future of the world," said Mr. Simon to the students. Continuing the students he visited the school.

Agra: Anshul Agarwal of St. Peter's College, Agra, was adjudged winner of the write-up contest in the 14-team final of the 2nd National Aerospace Olympiad held at Chandigarh from November 1999 to December 1999.

Intelligence quiz, Aviation and Space Quiz, Premier ranking and a presentation of $ 10,000. Team of St. Peter's gives remarkable performance at 2nd National Aerospace Olympiad.

UP secures 3rd place National Skate Ball

Agra: UP put up a fine performance in the 2nd National Championship Bhopal and secured the event. Anand Rajasthan occupied positions. From Agra, Akash Tyagi, Himansu, Saman, Sindhwani and Varun team of UP with Shashank, Tushar and Shubham, Saumya, Ganesh, Arora, Mukul, etc.

Students applaud speech of Dr. Mathur

Agra: The 60th Independence Day of our country was celebrated with great enthusiasm at St. Peter's College. The campus was decorated with around 200 flags. The entrance was lined with colorful banners. 'Vijayanta Tark', stood majestically, sporting the Indian Tricolor. The children were delighted to have Dr. Anand Prasad Mathur as their chief guest. Dr. Mathur is a former Vice-Chancellor of Agra University. The programme started with a general welcome by the principal. Dr. Mathur, the chief guest, Dr. Mathur, He addressed the students along with the chanting of the national Anthem. The students read excerpts from the Holy Quran, and the Holy Bible. Mathur spoke and speeches by the students. The programme concluded with a traditional Indian dance by the students. The audience pledged to rise above the divisions of the students.
